The Baptist Historical Society exists to encourage the study of Baptist history and themes primarily in England and Wales, to promote original research and publication of articles, to seek the preservation of significant records and to urge Baptists to record their own histories.

BHS was founded in the UK in 1908, and members are now found around the world, including Baptist historians, seminarians and Baptist ministers, university libraries and historians of literature, ecclesiastical Dissent and religious traditions.

Benefits of membership include:

- Participation in a network of people who value Baptist stories and are interested in exploring and researching Baptist life and thought.
- A copy of the peer-reviewed Baptist Quarterly, and access to the archive dating from 1908.
- The Quarterly includes articles by members and non-members, as well as book reviews of subject interest to members.
- Invitations to events, conferences and online discussions sponsored by BHS.
- An opportunity to submit articles to the journal.
- An occasional newsletter carrying information about news, publications and events.
